What should be the strategy: The market is Offering Very good opportunity for Mid-Long Term Investments.

The valuations are attractive due to all bad news, though there is visibility in Growth. Inflation will also start cooling off, before the 2011 ends in next 8 Weeks.

Once Good News start to flow in, the markets would have moved much ahead from here by then. Retail Investors need not get into finding Penny scrips that create wealth, focus on Top 200 Companies, there is enough Juice in prices of Mammoths and they are much more safer than lesser known mid & small Cap scrips.

Quarterly Report cards will continue to impact the scrips. For all Results related details, please check this link <http://indiaearnings.moneycontrol.com/home.php>
